BRAND AMBASSADOR

Ready for a fun and fulfilling summer gig with a growing and dynamic business that compensates well beyond industry standards? Timeshare Termination Team embraces our Brand Ambassadors, because they are the first point of contact potential clients have with our company events and trade shows.

The Brand Ambassador's end goal is straight forward: set appointments with timeshare owners to meet with our expert advisors. No sales or price discussions are involved. This person will transport/ assemble/disassemble booth equipment and marketing materials for events. While on-site, talk with potential clients about their situation, actively listening and screening and presenting the benefits of working with Timeshare Termination Team. After each event, deliver a thorough report, including the book of set appointments and a summary of participation to detail opportunities, challenges and overall success of the event.

Preferred Experience: 3+ years of professional experience in public relations and/or brand marketing, customer service, relationship-centered sales, or a closely a related field.

Qualifications:

- Uncanny ability to quickly establish rapport and trust with an easy, upbeat communication style, skillfully listening and eager to hear potential clients' needs and/or dilemmas.
- Self-starter who embraces the importance of preparation and follow-up and is eager to work the majority of events (including nights, weekends and some overnights) outlined below:
